

Andrea Terrinoni was born in Rome on August 23rd. He began playing piano at the age of 11.
1995: music for the promotional short film produced for the campaign 'Bambini Down' (down syndrome children).

The short movie was recognised with the "Key Award".

1998: music for classical guitar performed live by Maestro Goran Listes and recorded on CD, label "Niccolò".

1998: soundtrack of the short film "Chauffeur", directed by Christian Angeli and produced by "TVMA & Associati".

1998: music for theatre plays "Treni di memorie" and "Splatter", both directed by Roberto Azzurro.

1999: soundtrack of the two-episode TV movie "Giochi pericolosi", produced by "TVMA & Associati" for RAIDUE, starring Laura Morante, Anna Valle and Massimo Venturiello.

2000: soundtrack of the feature film "La prova", written and directed by Mariella Pizzigoni.

2001/2003: music for short films commissioned by Rome's Administration about 'New Year's eve' 2002 and 2003, and the ferry service on the river Tiber.

2004: soundtrack of the short film 'Fare bene Mikles', directed by Christian Angeli. It was awarded various prizes at important festival such as Leeds International Film Festival (best short film), Fano International Film Festival (Gran Premio Speciale della Giuria), Festival du Film Court de Brest and Festival of Rotterdam. In 2005 'Fare bene Mikles' was awarded the Globo d'Oro as best short film.

2007: soundtrack of the feature film 'In carne ed ossa', directed by Christian Angeli, produced by Alessandro Verdecchi, starring Alba Rohrwacher and Maddalena Crippa.

2008: soundtrack of the feature film 'Piede di dio', written and directed by Luigi Sardiello, produced by Enzo Porcelli, starring Emilio Solfrizzi.

November 2009: first prize for best soundtrack of the year (Piede di dio) at the "Musica & Film" Festival in Lagonegro.

2011: soundtrack of the feature film 'Il pasticciere', written and directed by Luigi Sardiello, produced by Alessandro Contessa, starring Antonio Catania and Ennio Fantastichini.